C₃u₁e₁s₁ t₁o₁ D₂e₁p₃t₁h₄

Gap-fillers: estimate • interpret • register • two • three (x 2)

Depth perception means…that one has the ability to accurately _____ the distance of objects and so perceive the external world in _____ dimensions.
Our retinas _____ only _____-dimensional images, yet our brain is able to _____ the information received from the retina into _____-dimensional perceptions of the world. But how do we do it?
Type of Cue	Monocular	Binocular
Pictorial (in the environment)
Non-Pictorial (biological cues)

Depth Perception Cues – Examples

Stimulus	Cues depicted in stimulus or employed in perceiving it	Monocular or binocular?	Pictorial or Non-Pictorial?
❶ 2 x teacher. Oh dear.
❷ Monet's poppies
❸ Books in a uni library
❹			